

KRIP Privacy Policy

KRIP (hereinafter, the "Company") values users' personal information and complies with the Personal Information Protection Act and other applicable laws and regulations. Through this Privacy Policy, the Company explains the purposes for which it processes users' personal information and how it protects and destroys such information.

Article 1 (Purpose of Processing Personal Information)

The Company processes personal information for the following purposes:

1. User identification, confirmation of intent to sign up, login, and account management
2. Service provision and delivery of personalized features for users
3. Provision of menu OCR translation, travel mate matching, and AI travel itinerary planning features
4. Provision of community features such as posts and chats
5. Responding to inquiries, delivering notices, and operating and improving the service
6. Statistical analysis of service usage
7. Prevention and sanctions against abnormal use such as fraudulent use, violations of the Terms, and identity theft
8. Sending push notifications. However, advertising information is sent only when separate consent has been obtained.

Article 2 (Items of Personal Information Processed)

The Company may process the following personal information to provide the service.

1. Sign-up and login
 - Required items: Email address, name, nickname, unique Google account identifier
 - Collection method: User input or Google social login OAuth authentication
2. Information automatically generated in the course of using the service

- Service usage records, access logs, access IP, device information, app version, error records

3. Push notifications

- Optional items: FCM device token
- Processed only when the user has consented to receive push notifications.

4. Menu OCR translation service

- Images taken of menu boards
- Such images are deleted immediately after OCR processing and translation are provided.

5. Travel mate matching and AI travel itinerary planning

- Travel region, travel schedule, companion type, preferred gender, age group, search keywords, post content, attached post image URLs, chat messages

The Company processes only the minimum personal information necessary to provide the service and, in principle, does not collect sensitive information.

Article 3 (Retention and Use Period of Personal Information)

The Company retains and uses personal information until the purposes of collection and use are achieved.

1. Member information

- After a member requests account deletion (withdrawal), the Company provides a 1-month withdrawal grace period.
- During the grace period, the account is deactivated and the user may request account restoration.
- After the 1-month grace period, personal information is destroyed without delay.
- However, information required to be retained under applicable laws is stored separately from other personal information for the relevant period.

2. Images taken of menu boards

- Deleted immediately after OCR processing and translation are provided.

3. Records for preventing fraudulent use

- The minimum records necessary to prevent fraudulent sign-ups and abnormal use may be retained for up to 1 year after account deletion (withdrawal).

4. Retention required by law

- Records on contracts or withdrawal of subscription, etc.: 5 years
- Records on payment and supply of goods, etc.: 5 years
- Records on consumer complaints or dispute resolution: 3 years
- Records on 표시·광고 (labeling/advertising): 6 months
- Website or service access log records: 3 months

Article 4 (Procedures and Methods for Destruction of Personal Information)

The Company destroys personal information without delay when the retention period expires or the processing purpose is achieved.

1. Personal information in electronic file form is deleted using methods that prevent recovery or reproduction.
2. Personal information in paper document form is shredded or incinerated.
3. Personal information that must be retained under law is stored separately from other personal information.

Article 5 (Provision of Personal Information to Third Parties)

In principle, the Company does not provide users' personal information to external parties. However, it may provide such information exceptionally in the following cases:

1. When the user has provided prior consent
2. When there is a legal obligation to submit information under law
3. When investigative authorities or other competent agencies request information through lawful procedures

In the course of Google social login, the Company receives from Google information necessary for user authentication, and this does not constitute the Company's provision of the user's personal information to Google as a third party.

Article 6 (Outsourcing of Personal Information Processing)

The Company may outsource personal information processing as follows to provide the service.

1. Google LLC

- Outsourced tasks: Google social login authentication; sending push notifications via Firebase Cloud Messaging
- Items processed: Email address, name, unique Google account identifier, FCM device token
- Retention and use period: Until 1 month after account deletion (withdrawal) or until the purpose of outsourcing is achieved

When entering into outsourcing agreements, the Company supervises and manages the vendor in accordance with applicable laws and regulations so that personal information is processed safely.

Article 7 (Overseas Transfer of Personal Information)

In the course of using Google LLC services, personal information may be transferred overseas.

1. Recipient: Google LLC

2. Recipient country: The United States and other countries where Google processes data

3. Items transferred: Email address, name, unique Google account identifier, FCM device token

4. Purpose of transfer: Social login authentication; sending push notifications

5. Method of transfer: Transmission over the network when using the service

6. Retention and use period: Until 1 month after account deletion (withdrawal) or until the processing purpose is achieved

Article 8 (Rights and Duties of Data Subjects and Legal Representatives, and How to Exercise Them)

Users may request access, correction, deletion, suspension of processing, or withdrawal of consent with respect to their personal information at any time.

Users may submit requests through in-app features or by emailing the Chief Privacy Officer, and the Company will take measures without delay in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Article 9 (Processing of Personal Information of Children Under the Age of 14)

The Company does not allow children under the age of 14 to sign up for membership or use the service. If the Company becomes aware that it has collected personal information of a child under the age of 14, it will delete such information without delay.

Article 10 (Transmission of Advertising Information)

The Company transmits advertising information only when it has obtained the user's explicit prior consent.

Users may withdraw consent to receive advertising information at any time, and the Company will process opt-out or withdrawal requests without delay.

Article 11 (Installation/Operation and Refusal of Automatic Personal Information Collection Devices)

When providing web-based services, the Company may use automatic collection devices such as cookies.

Users may refuse the storage of cookies through browser settings. However, if cookie storage is refused, some service use may be restricted.

Article 12 (Measures to Ensure the Security of Personal Information)

The Company takes the following measures to ensure secure processing of personal information.

1. Minimization of access rights to personal information
2. Training for personnel responsible for personal information processing
3. Encryption and secure storage of personal information
4. Technical protective measures against hacking and malware
5. Retention of access records and prevention of forgery/alteration
6. Access control for personal information processing systems

Article 13 (Measures in the Event of Personal Information Leakage)

If the Company becomes aware of any loss, theft, or leakage of personal information, it will notify users without delay and report to the Personal Information Protection Commission, the Korea Internet & Security Agency, or other relevant authorities in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Article 14 (Chief Privacy Officer)

The Company designates a Chief Privacy Officer to oversee personal information processing and to handle users' inquiries and complaints.

Chief Privacy Officer

- Name: Wonjun Choi

- Title: Team Lead
- Email: gwg0813@gmail.com

Article 15 (Remedies for Infringement of Rights and Interests)

Users may contact the following organizations for counseling or relief regarding personal information infringement.

1. Personal Information Dispute Mediation Committee: 1833-6972, www.kopico.go.kr
2. Personal Information Infringement Report Center: 118, privacy.kisa.or.kr
3. Supreme Prosecutors' Office: 1301, www.spo.go.kr
4. National Police Agency: 182, ecrm.cyber.go.kr

Article 16 (Changes to the Privacy Policy)

The Company may revise this Policy due to changes in applicable laws, service contents, or internal policies.

In the event of changes to this Policy, the Company will provide notice through in-service notices, etc., at least 7 days prior to the effective date. In the event of material changes that significantly affect users' rights, the Company will provide notice at least 30 days in advance.

Addendum

This Privacy Policy is effective as of May 25, 2026.