

KRIP Account Deletion Notice

Please read the following information carefully before requesting account deletion.

1. Account Deactivation and Grace Period

When a user requests account deletion, the account is immediately deactivated and access to the service is restricted.

However, to prevent accidental deletion and allow account recovery requests, a one-month withdrawal grace period is provided from the date of the deletion request.

During the grace period, users may request account restoration.

2. Deletion of Personal Information

After the grace period expires, personal information and service usage data will be deleted without delay in accordance with applicable laws and internal policies.

However, the following information may be retained separately for a certain period as required by applicable laws:

- Records related to contracts or subscription withdrawal: 5 years
- Records related to payment and supply of goods/services: 5 years
- Consumer complaints or dispute resolution records: 3 years
- Records related to advertising and labeling: 6 months
- Access log records: 3 months

3. Posts and Chat Data

Posts, comments, chat messages, and other content created by users may not be immediately deleted, or may be anonymized, in order to maintain service operation and protect other users.

However, personal information included in such content will be processed in accordance with applicable laws and internal policies.

4. Fraud Prevention

Minimum necessary records may be retained for up to one year after account deletion for the prevention of fraudulent registration, abuse, violations of terms, or abnormal activities.

5. Withdrawal Cancellation and Account Recovery

Users may request account recovery through customer support during the withdrawal grace period.

After the grace period expires, account and personal information recovery will no longer be possible.

6. Important Notice

After account deletion is completed, the following information may not be recoverable:

- Profile information
- Travel itinerary information
- Travel mate posts
- Chat history
- Saved settings
- Notification settings

By proceeding with account deletion, the user is deemed to have read and agreed to the above terms.
